The Connectional Table (CT) has received many questions about the relationship between the CT's U.S. Regional Conference legislation and the recently released legislation referred to as the Christmas Covenant (please see page 3 of this PDF).

After a close examination of this legislation, we affirm that the Christmas Covenant accurately reflects the CT legislation which proposes creating a U.S. Regional Conference. It also makes the regional conference structure consistent worldwide.

The Christmas Covenant was named as such in recognition of the historic Christmas Conference of 1784. It was written by a coalition of central conference members from the Philippines, Africa and Europe. The legislation has been endorsed and sent to General Conference by the Philippines Annual Conference-- Cavite.

We celebrate that the Christmas Covenant was created by members of our central conferences and seeks to bring structural equity and regional self-determination to the whole church. It has always been the vision and work of the Connectional Table to raise awareness and appreciation of our worldwide connection by listening to voices from all parts of our connection, especially our central conference brothers and sisters.

Like the CT USRC legislation, the Christmas Covenant legislation creates a two-stage process in relation to the U.S. It starts with an interim U.S. Regional Committee that does not require constitutional changes. It then creates a U.S. Regional Conference, which requires amendments to the Constitution. In addition, it includes the CT's non-disciplinary petition creating an Interim Committee on Organization for the U.S.

Much of the Christmas Covenant legislation related to central conferences simply effects a name change. The legislation changes the terminology in the Book of Discipline related to the central conferences, replacing "central" with "regional" and "church outside the U.S." with the more globally equitable language, "church around the globe." These changes are consistent with the intent of the CT legislation to move away from the painful racist history of the Central Jurisdiction by using "regional" instead of "central" for the whole church.

Moreover, the Christmas Covenant puts into place structural changes related to equity. For instance, to create consistency in structure across the globe, it gives the regional conferences outside the U.S. the ability to create jurisdictions. In addition, it gives all regional conferences, including the U.S. Regional Conference, the option of abolishing jurisdictions or not using them at all. However, like the CT legislation, it keeps in place the current structure, powers and duties of jurisdictions in the United States.

Regional governance legislation, like the CT USRC legislation or the Christmas Covenant, can provide the regional adaptation authority necessary for self-determination in our worldwide church. Such legislation can provide a way for our church to remain a “big tent” church worldwide as we each shape ministry for our different contexts. Providing the space for us to stay connected in ministry but more regional in governance is a way we can seek to continue to be the Body of Christ together.

The Christmas Covenant gives the CT and the successor body of the Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters a role in perfecting this structure to insure equity. This collaborative group would bring a report to the 2024 General Conference. If this legislation passes, the Connectional Table would welcome such work on behalf of our worldwide connection.

Discipline Paragraphs: None

General Church Budget Implications: Yes

Global Implications: Yes

A Non-Disciplinary Petition to Create a Plan for Organization of a United States Regional Conference

Authorization—There shall be an Interim Committee on Organization (ICO) for one quadrennium that organizes and plans for the establishment and functioning of a new United States Regional Conference (USRC) comprising the five jurisdictions of the United States.

Composition—The Council of Bishops, through the Leadership Discernment Committee, shall appoint a 20-25-member Interim Committee on Organization (ICO). The committee membership shall be determined using proportionate representation of the United States jurisdictions, with a minimum of three members from each United States jurisdiction, ensuring broad diversity, including racial, young adults, persons with disabilities (special needs) and gender inclusion. All members of the ICO shall be chosen from among the voting delegates elected by the annual conferences in the U.S. jurisdictions. Meeting and other necessary costs shall be funded by the General Administration Fund. In addition, two regional conference members shall be elected by the Regional Conferences outside of the United States or their leadership bodies to advise and consult the ICO.

Responsibilities—The ICO shall be charged with the following responsibilities:

1. The ICO shall choose the time and place for the convening of the initial gathering of the United States Regional Conference.

2. The ICO shall work with the Secretary of the General Conference and the Business Manager of the General Conference in planning for the first gathering of the United States Regional Conference.

3. The ICO, in consultation with the appropriate committees of the Commission on the General Conference, shall recommend to the United States Regional Conference for action at its first gathering what committees and officers are required to ensure the functionality of the USRC.

4. Upon the completion of the first United States Regional Conference gathering, the ICO shall cease to exist as a committee of the General Conference, unless the USRC authorizes the continuation of their work for a specific time and purpose.

This petition will go into effect only upon the General Conference approval of the establishment of the United States Regional Conference.

All provisions of this petition shall take effect immediately upon the adjournment of the 2020 General Conference.

APPENDIX

Anticipated Financial Requirements—United States Regional Conference

The creation of the United States Regional Conference is predicted to decrease the cost of General Conference by reducing the number days of the gathering, due to a decrease in number of days for the entire General Conference and the expectation that the United States Regional Conference would save money for the denomination. The United States Regional Conference could convene during or at the end of General Conference or in conjunction with Jurisdictional conference and meet for not more than a few days to handle the U.S. specific matters.

The Interim Committee on Organization for the United States Regional Conference would meet two times total during the quadrennium, each time for no more than three days (two nights lodging). The committee could meet in a central United States location and perhaps could receive donated meeting space from a church or an agency. At a maximum number of 25 members with flights, meals, lodging, staffing, and venue costs meeting two times, the committee would need new funding of between $83,000 and $98,000. The committee would only meet for one quadrennium, so the expenses would be needed for 2021-2024, but not beyond.
